

The American History Teachers' Collaborative is pleased to present
TWO upcoming events:

Teaching: Then and Now

A Focus Workshop

Featuring teachers presenting summer institute and fellowship lesson plans, Dr. Christopher Span from the U of I speaking on the history of African-American education, a presentation of early American schooling by the staff of the Early American Museum, and Carol Inskeep sharing books on the history of schools

Saturday, January 29th, 2005

8:00 – 4:30

Early American Museum, Mahomet

AND

Conference on Teaching American History

A Teaching American History Grant Symposium

Featuring Gordon Wood, author of The Americanization of Benjamin Franklin, and presentations of lesson plans by teachers from districts throughout Illinois that have received Teaching American History grants

Saturday, February 26th, 2005

8:00 – 3:00

Chateau Hotel, Bloomington

Lunch will be provided at both events

Please turn in completed registration form and registration fee
by January 19th, 2005

Priority given to Illinois or U.S. history teachers

The American History Teachers' Collaborative is funded by the U.S. Department of Education through the Teaching American History Grant Program, and coordinated by Urbana School District #116. For more information visit the project homepage at:

www.usd116.org/ProfDev/AHTC/ahtc.html