

Double Entry Reflective Journal:

Before the Lesson:

After the Lesson:

What does this political cartoon mean to you?

How does this political cartoon fit into the social and political context of the Bank Crisis of 1933?

They used to tell me I was building a dream,
and so I followed the mob,
When there was earth to plow, or guns to bear,
I was always there right on the job.
They used to tell me I was building a dream,
with peace and glory ahead,
Why should I be standing in line, just waiting for bread?

What do these lyrics make you think about?

How does this song fit into the social and political context of the Bank Crisis of 1933?

Confidence and courage are the essentials of success in carrying out our plan. You people must have faith; you must not be stampeded by rumors or guesses. Let us unite in banishing fear.

What do you think this quote is about?

How does this quote help explain the Bank Crisis of 1933?

