

Courting Letter Questions:

Why is Abel writing Mr. Batchellor?

How is this different than dating today? How is it similar?

What do you think “was said between” Mary and himself that he expected to be written to?

Does this change the way you look at Abel? What new information does this give us about him?