

A Resolution Regarding Homelessness in Champaign County

Whereas the issue of homelessness impacts between 2 and 3 percent of the students in the Urbana and Champaign School districts every year; and

Whereas the City of Urbana and the City of Champaign appoint members to the Housing Authority Board;

Be it Resolved that the Urbana School District 116 Board of Education is requesting the City of Urbana to instruct the Housing Authority of Champaign County to form a community-wide committee to study the issue of homelessness in Champaign County. The committee would be charged with conducting a needs assessment and would also make recommendations about the resources and partnerships needed to address homelessness across the county.
