Aja Capel, Junior at Urbana High School, has had many honors and awards during her high school career. 2019 Honors and Awards: 24 Under 24 Leaders & Innovators in STEAM and Space Award; SWENext Community Innovator Award; Prudential Spirit of Community Award & Scholarship (IL's Top High School Youth Volunteer); Presidents Volunteer Service Award; Courage to Grow Scholarship; FIRST Dean's List Finalist; National Center for Women & Information Technology (NCWIT) Aspirations in Computing National Award & Scholarship; NCWIT Central Illinois Aspirations in Computing Award (2019 & 2018); IL Association of Gifted Children Distinguished Student Award & Scholarship. In addition to her Urbana High School academic rigor, she is also enrolled at Arizona State University and Arizona Prep Digital Academy. Aja will graduate from Urbana High School at the age of 16, and intends to attend Rose Hulman Institute of Technology studying mechanical engineering with a minor in robotics.

During this school year, students from UHS submitted over 100 works of art into 5 different art shows. Ms. Lagerstam is proud to announce that Urbana students had a number of winning entries!

In the Small Works Art Show at U of I, Celia Barbieri won the Judge's Choice Award, Kaylee Crushshon, Aaron Gabel, and Owen Robinson won Honorable Mentions.

At the Central Illinois High School Art Exhibit in Bloomington, Kiah Thompson won the Category Award for Photography, Xavier Geigner won the Category Award for Design, and Isabelle Gibb won recognition from NIU to attend their summer camp.

In the Millikin High School Art Show, Lilly Hall won Best 3D and Lucas Lucero won an Honorable Mention.

Lucas Lucero won an Honorable Mention at the Eric Show as well.

41 pieces were entered into the Regional Scholastic Art & Writing competition. 9 students won awards! Jenny Hernandez won the Joann Gross Scholarship for her portfolio; Miranda Kowalski and Emily Yan won Honorable Mentions; Cora Welch and Jhanice Aldana won Honorable Mentions for their Senior Portfolios; Lucas Lucero won a Silver Key; Caleb Dixon, Jasmin F., and Joseph Khan won Gold Keys (the highest honor regionally).

Winners who received Gold Keys moved on to the national competition for further judging where Caleb Dixon and Joseph Khan won Silver Medals.

The students have two more shows coming up; the AP Studio Art Show in the Link Gallery and the UHS Student Art Show in the UHS library.
